On the 100th Anniversary of The Battle of Vimy Ridge

The Canadian Corps was ordered to seize Vimy Ridge at 5:30 am on Easter Monday, 9 April 1917. Situated in northern France, Vimy Ridge was a heavily-fortified seven-kilometre ridge held by three divisions of the German Sixth Army. Canadian soldiers underwent weeks of training behind the lines using models to represent the battlefield, and new maps crafted from aerial photographs to guide their way. To bring men forward safely for the assault, engineers dug deep tunnels from the rear to the front. More than 15,000 Canadian infantry overran the enemy behind a devastating artillery barrage that provided a moving wall of high explosives and shrapnel. There were countless acts of sacrifice, as Canadians single-handedly charged machine-gun nests or forced the surrender of Germans in protective dugouts. Hill 145, the highest and most important feature of the Ridge, and where the Vimy monument now stands, was captured in a frontal bayonet charge against machine-gun positions. Three more days of costly battle delivered final victory. (adapted from The Canadian War Museum)

Present at the Battle of Vimy Ridge was Cpl. James Parkinson of St. George's who died at that battle on April 10th. Also present was an Anglican Priest and Chaplain, Major the Rev. Canon Frederick George Scott. Two days before, on Holy Saturday, he had turned 56. At the outset of the war, he left his parish (St. Matthew's in Quebec City) to serve the soldiers whom he called "his boys". Known as the Poet of the Laurentians, Canon Scott wrote many poems as well as some hymns, including # 244 and # 581 included in this morning's 10 o'clock Service. The following paragraphs are from his book, The Great War as I Saw It.

"April 6th was Good Friday. It was impossible to have Service at Ecoivres, as everyone was so busy, so I rode over to Anzin and had Service for the 7th Siege Battery in an empty Nissen hut (made of corrugated iron with a concrete floor). Most of the men of the battery were present, and I had forty communicants. The place was lit by candles which every now and then were extinguished by the firing of the fifteen-inch gun nearby. Easter Day was originally intended to be the day for our attack, but it had been postponed till Monday. We could not do much in the way of observing the great feast. Every room and shed in the town was filled, and men were lying out under rubber sheets in the fields. I had two celebrations of the Holy Communion in the Y.M.C.A. hut, the floor of which was covered with sleeping men. I managed to clear a little space on the stage for the Altar. ... In the afternoon I visited and gave an address to one of the battalions moving up the line. I also had a Service in the cinema that evening.

"It was a time of mingled anxiety and exhilaration. What did the next twenty-four hours hold in store for us? Was it to be a true Easter for the world, and a resurrection to a new and better life? If death awaited us, what nobler passage could there be to Eternity than such a death in such a cause? Never was the spirit of comradeship higher in the Canadian Corps. Never was there a greater sense of unity. The task laid upon us was a tremendous one, but in the heart of each man, from Private to General, was the determination that it should be performed. On that Easter night, the battalions took their places in the line. The men at the guns, which had hitherto been concealed and kept silent, were ready to open fire at zero hour, and all along that front the eager heart of Canada waited impatiently for the dawn."

Maundy Thursday Watch – Help please! It is our custom to keep vigil in the Chapel from 9:00 p.m. on Maundy Thursday until 7:00 a.m. on Good Friday, remembering how Jesus asked His disciples, "Could you not watch with Me one hour?" If you can help, please sign the sheet in the vestibule to indicate the time you can keep watch.

Good Friday – April 14th, 9:15 am Way of the Cross leaving from City Hall and proceeding to St. George's. (Volunteers needed both adults and children to carry the cross.)

On Saturday, April 15th, the Easter Vigil will be held at St. George's at 9:00 p.m. Readers are needed for that Service. If you can help, please sign the sheet on the table in the Main Entry.

Easter Breakfast – Don't forget our Continental Easter Breakfast scheduled to begin on Easter Sunday at 9:00 am, April 16th, in the Church Hall. There is no cost and everyone is welcome. We would like to have an idea of numbers so please sign the sheet in the vestibule if you plan to attend. Thank you.

The Alpha program begins on Monday April 24th. If there is someone you are thinking of, why not invite them and offer to bring them?

If you play the guitar and could be available on Sundays at 5pm, please let Rectory know. Thank you!
