Reception	The St. George's Willing Workers

Today in the Church calendar, we remember Saint Barnabas the Apostle, companion of Saint Paul in the first years of the Church. We remember his encouragement of the peoples of Antioch to embody a love for the poor following the example of Jesus Christ our Lord.

To this end, a free-will offering will be collected and donated to the St. George's morning drop-in program.

The Ordination to the Diaconate of NICHOLAS JOEL SAULNIER

Welcome to the Church of St. George in the Parish of Moncton.
We are pleased to have join us in worship today!

Due to the expected large number of people travelling today, we strongly encourage the wearing of masks within the church, with exception for those with active liturgical roles.

Books: The Service is taken from the red Book of Common Prayer. All page numbers reference this volume. All hymns are found in the blue hymnal, except where noted as an insert.

Communion: Communion will be distributed in both kinds (bread and wine), though you are welcome to receive in one kind only. All baptized Christians are welcome to receive Holy Communion. If you would like to come forward to receive a Blessing in place of the elements, please cross your arms in front of your chest. Gluten Free hosts are available.

To improve traffic flow, we ask that you please remain on your side of the church when you go up for Communion, fill up your half of the rail, and exit through the side door on your side of the rail. Please indicate to the sidespeople if you would like to receive Communion in your seat.

Reception: There will be a reception offered in the Church Hall following this Service. Please participate according to your comfort level, and feel free to move outdoors if needed. There are stairs at the front and back of the Church down to the hall, as well as an elevator in the entryway.

To learn more about our service times or to connect with us, please visit our website at www.stgeorgesmoncton.ca. We look forward to seeing you again!

The flowers on the altar are placed to the Glory of God and in loving memory of Nicholas' family members Hayward Dunnett, Jean Graye, Peter Graye, Ross Dunnett, and Kim Dunnett.
