THE COLLECT FOR EASTER SUNDAY:

ALMIGHTY God, who through thine only begotten Son Jesus Christ hast overcome death, and opened unto us the gate of everlasting life: We humbly beseech thee, that as by thy special grace thou dost put into our minds good desires, so by thy continual help we may bring the same to good effect; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen. P 182

THE INTROIT PSALM

I am risen, and am still with thee, alleluia; thou hast laid thine hand upon me, alleluia: thy knowledge is too wonderful and excellent for me, alleluia, alleluia, O lord, thou hast searched me out, and known me: thou knowest my down-sitting, and mine uprising. Glory be... and to the Holy Ghost. As it was... and ever shall be world without end. Amen

VICAR'S VOICE

What a Morning!

The Lord is Risen Indeed! O Happy morning!

The theme of "the morning" is widely expressed in the bible - appearing 200 times in the Old Testament alone. In Lamentations, Jeremiah reminds us of the fresh portion of grace and mercy afforded us with each new day: "The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases, His mercies never come to an end, they are new every morning. Great is His faithfulness" (Lam 3:24-25).

The morning is also equated with the "coming of the Lord" or "divine activity." 2 Samuel 23:4, reads: 'He is like the light of morning at sunrise on a cloudless morning, like the brightness after rain that brings grass from the earth.' Zephaniah writes: "Every morning God brings forth justice and does not fail." (Zeph. 3:5). In the Gospels, Zechariah proclaims with great joy the new day that the Messiah would bring saying, "the dawn from on high has visited us" (Luke 1:78).

On the third day, after the death of Jesus, in the morning His disciples ventured to the tomb -hoping to at least spend some last time with Jesus body...only to discover that there was no body...only an empty tomb. Later, when they encountered Him alive again, their faith and hope were rekindled. Truly, it was the dawn of new life for them. They became "Resurrection people."

Today, we celebrate the MOST significant event in human history -the resurrection of Jesus. God chose to reveal the Resurrected Lord in the morning. Jesus' resurrection marked the dawn of new life and a new day for all humankind.

Are you a morning person now? Are you still stuck in old sleepy ways? Have you allowed the risen Christ to meet you? -to wake you up? What do you need to ask Jesus to re-ignite in you this Easter?

May the living Christ encourage you and bring you into His light. Jesus is Risen, He is risen indeed! Hallelujah!

In His joy,
Rob+
